Full Text of Mrs. Dominis' Letter to President Dole.

LONGS TO BE A PRIVATE CITIZEN.

Plends for Mercy for Misguided Hawaiians—Swears Allegiance to the Republic—Recognizes President Dole as Lawful Representative of the People.

The full text of the letter which Mrs. Dominis sent to President Dole, as first announced in the ADVERTISER, was made public yesterday afternoon.

The document was drawn up by Judge A. S. Hartwell, who was consulted by Mr. Wilson, Mr. Parker and Mr. Neumann about the matter, and acted as advising counsel for them, but not strictly as attorney for Liliuokalani as stated in the evening papers. Judge Hartwell attended the execution of the document at the special request of Mrs. Dominis, Mr. Neumann and Mr. Wilson.

Following is the correspondence in full:

ISLAND OF OAHU,
HONOLULU, Jan. 24, 1895.

To the HON. SANFORD BALLARD DOLE, President of the Republic of Hawaii:

SIR—After full and free consultation with my personal friends and with my legal advisors, both before and since my detention by military order in the Executive building, and acting in conformity with their advice, and upon my own free will, and in pursuance of my unalterable belief and understanding of my duty to the people of Hawaii, and to their highest and best interests, and also for the sake of those misguided Hawaiians and others who have recently engaged in rebellion against the Republic, and in an attempt to restore me to the position of queen, which I held prior to the 17th day of January, A. D. 1893, and without any claim that I shall become entitled, by reason of anything that I may now say or do, to any other or different treatment or consideration at the hands of the Government than I otherwise could and might legally receive, I now desire to express and make known, and do hereby express and make known, to yourself, as the only lawful and recognized head of the Government, and to all the people of the Hawaiian Islands, whether or not they have yet become citizens of the Republic, or are or have been adherents of the late monarchy, and also to all diplomatic and other foreign representatives in the Hawaiian Islands, to all of whom I respectfully request you to cause this statement and action of mine to be made known as soon as may be, as follows, namely:

First. In order to avoid any possibility of doubt or misunderstanding on the subject, although I do not think that any doubt or misunderstanding is either proper or possible, I hereby do fully and unequivocally admit and declare that the Government of the Republic of Hawaii is the only lawful Government of the Hawaiian Islands, and that the late Hawaiian monarchy is finally and forever ended, and no longer of any legal or actual validity, force or effect whatsoever; and I do hereby forever absolve all persons, whomever, whether in the Hawaiian Islands or elsewhere, from all and every manner of allegiance, or official obligation or duty, to me and my heirs and successors forever, and I hereby declare to all such persons in the Hawaiian Islands that I consider them as bound in duty and honor henceforth to support and sustain the Government of the Republic of Hawaii.

Second. For myself, my heirs and successors, I do hereby and without any mental reservation or modification, and fully, finally, unequivocally, irrevocably, and forever abdicate, renounce, and release unto the Government of the Republic of Hawaii and its legitimate successors forever all claims or pretensions whatsoever to the late throne of Hawaii, or to the late monarchy of Hawaii, or to any past, or to the existing, or to any future Government of Hawaii, or under or by reason of any present or former existing constitution, statute, law, position, right or claim of any and every kind, name or nature whatsoever, and whether the same consist of pecuniary or property considerations, or of personal status, hereby forever renouncing, disavowing and disclaiming all rights, claims, demands, privileges, honors, emoluments, titles and prerogatives whatsoever, under or by virtue of any former, or the existing Government, constitution, statute, law or custom of the Hawaiian Islands, whatsoever, save and excepting only such rights and privileges as belong to me in common with all private citizens of, or residents in the Republic of Hawaii.

Third. I do hereby respectfully im-plead for such misguided Hawaiians and others as have been concerned in the late rebellion against the Republic of Hawaii, such degrees of executive clemency as the Government may deem to be consistent with its duty to the community, and such as a due regard for its violated laws may permit.

Fourth. It is my sincere desire henceforth to live in absolute privacy and retirement from all publicity, or even appearance of being concerned in the public affairs of the Hawaiian Islands, further than to express, as I now do and shall always continue to do, my most sincere hope for the welfare and prosperity of its people, and subject to the Government of the Republic of Hawaii.

Fifth. I hereby offer and present my duly certified oath of allegiance to the Republic of Hawaii.

Sixth. I have caused the foregoing statement to be prepared, and drawn, and have signed the same without having received the slightest suggestion from the President of Hawaii, or from any member of the Government of Hawaii, concerning the same or any part thereof, or concerning any action or course of my own in the premises.

Relying upon the magnanimity of the Government of the Republic, and upon its protection, I have the honor to be, Mr. President,

Very respectfully,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed),
LILIUOKALANI DOMINIS.

On the 24th day of January, A. D. 1895, the foregoing was in our presence read over and considered carefully and deliberately by Liliuokalani Dominis, and she, the said Liliuokalani Dominis, thereupon in our presence declared that the same was a correct, exact and full statement of her wishes and acts in the premises, which statement she declared to us that she desired to sign and acknowledge in our presence as her own free act and deed, and she thereupon signed the same in our presence, and declared the same to be her free act and deed, in witness whereof we have at the request of the said Liliuokalani Dominis, and in her presence, hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses, at the Executive building, in Honolulu on the Island of Oahu, this 24th day of January, A. D. 1895.

On this 24th day of January, A. D. 1895, personally appeared before me, LILIUOKALANI DOMINIS, known to me to be the person described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, who acknowledged to me that she executed the same freely and voluntarily and for the uses and purposes therein set forth.

I, Liliuokalani Dominis, do solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God, that I will support the Constitution, Laws and Government of the Republic of Hawaii, and will not, either directly or indirectly, encourage or assist in the restoration or establishment of a monarchical form of government in the Hawaiian Islands.

THE STRANGE SCHOONER.

Was Seen at Makana on Sunday. Inquired Direction of Lahaina.

The Kinau brought word that a trim-looking, strange schooner, with a crew of twenty-four men, put into Makana on Sunday last. A boat containing four men was sent ashore and one of the crew was recognized as an ex-employee at Spreckelsville. They asked the location of Lahaina, and after receiving the desired information and mailing some letters, the schooner departed in the direction of Lahaina. The vessel carried a full set of new sails, and on the foresail was a large figure "3" and the word "pilot."

It is said that Sheriff Andrews secured the letters mailed shortly after the departure of the schooner, and they are now supposed to be in the hands of the Government in Honolulu.

A schooner was sighted by the Kinau early yesterday morning near Lanai, but owing to the distance the name could not be ascertained. It was thought to be the Heeia.

Tom Poole Tells His Version of the Rebellion.

WORK OF MILITARY COMMISSION.

Statements by the Accused—Let Lane Say He Went to Front and Fight—Forward to Ballot—Duncan's Arguments—Court Adjourned to Monday

The Military Commission was adjourned to an overflow of native details at its session yesterday morning, much that has already been told being brought out in the native manner of telling his story.

The Court opened at 10:30. After the reading of the minutes Colonel Whiting announced that the objection to the jurisdiction of the Court by the counsel was overruled.

Robert Palau was first put on the stand—I left my house at 5:30 Sunday evening and continued along around the seaward side of Diamond Head till near Kaalawai where I was halted and asked name; was surrounded and taken to the house and asked why I had come there; told them had received an order to go there to attend a meeting. People in the house were alarmed; they told me to pick out a rifle; I said I had not come there for that purpose; ordered me to arm myself and after several orders I did so; stood there armed doing good deal of thinking; protested to carrying arms and they pointed their guns at me and told me I must do it. After a little while one came to me and told me to select a number of boys to go with me; I said I was no leader and had no authority; they gave authority and picked out men for me and told me to go to Moiliili where they said we would find people; found no one and went back as far as Kakaia. Just as we reached there Nowlin and others were starting. Nowlin told us to join his squad. We did so and went back to Telegraph Hill and stopped till morning; did no fighting up there; went over to Maunaloa to save myself; didn't like the business; had made up my mind on Saturday to come back but people told me to wait till the afternoon. Before the afternoon Mr. Larsen came out. When asked to go to the meeting I did not know what the meeting was for; was not at Kakaia on Thursday evening; never attended any meeting to organize rebel force; did not see people who approached me at Kakaia.

Kakahi Ioela said he went to Kaa-lawai Sunday afternoon alone on tramcar; saw quite a number of people; went out there because Palau said there was to be meeting at Kaa-lawai and if I wanted to know what was going on I had better go; found there wasn't a meeting going on but saw many people with arms; saw Lot Lane and Biplikane in the house; guns were there and a man told me to take a gun; I objected and was told to take a gun and say nothing; took a gun and soon Wilcox told us to go to Bartelmann's; squad numbered about fifteen men; when near the telegraph station Bartow and Pus had a dispute regarding the leadership; went to Kaa-lawai's house and Pus told Bartow he could lead the squad; went as far as Beckley's and men scattered; Wilcox told us to see if police-men were there and if so return; soon firing began and became general; Wilcox came. I was near Beckley's and Bartelmann's and Wilcox asked me to see who had done the firing; went back to the hill and Wilcox told us to remain there till morning; finally surrendered to Honolulu; followed Wilcox all around because he said we would be shot if Government forces saw us; there were ten of us that scattered in Kalihi when fired into and I followed Wilcox to the last.

Lot Lane was not sworn but made the following statement: Went to Kaa-lawai Saturday evening, under orders of Wilcox to clean guns; did so, then came with a party to Bartelmann's place and took part in the fight. Went on top of Diamond Head, and was there on Monday; remained there until the tugboat came around, when we left and went into the mountains; I took part in what was done, and was in the field for my love of country. I went into the thing and got my friends to go with me; went along with them and stuck to them until we got into Manoa Valley and stayed there until I gave myself up.

Tom Poole was rather wordy in his statement, but allowed to tell his story as he desired: Saturday I was at work in town; went home and was told that I was wanted at a house beyond Bartelmann's place. Was feeling the effects of liquor I had drunk. Told them they must wait until the next day. On account of being a little muddled, I forgot to ask who wanted me, but supposed it was Bartelmann, because he had taken my name on a list of soldiers who, he said, were to protect the queen. Bartelmann said I would be needed for only two weeks. The next morning I told several people I was going out
